1. Jes - sus in the man - ger 'neath the star - ry skies,
2. Ang - els in the heav - ens wing - ed oe'r the earth;
3. And the shep herds ga - ther'd round the sta - ble bare;
4. And your Mo - ther Ma - ry, gen - tle as can be;
5. Hush, the cross is call - ing, wak - ing soon from sleep;
6. Je - sus, please for - give us; all the wrongs we've done.

sleep sub - lime, there's so much time, now rest and close your eyes they re joice and with full voice pro - claim the ho - ly birth ox and ass they all a - mass be - fore the Ba - by there.
but to - mor - row all her sor - row she will have to see.
all your glad - ness turns to sad - ness and your heart to weep.
Fill us through with life a - new and save us, ev - 'ry one.
