

Ringers' Hymn as adopted by the Devon Association of Ringers

TAVISTOCK 66 66 44 44

Words & Music: George Campbell Grills

Ring out! Ye bells be - low, your thril - ling notes en - twine, Let Then go! ye ring - ers good, Your Cap - tain now o - bey, His Oh, may our bells be heard, their mes - sage is so clear: "O
 So let our chang - ing bells Christ's mys - tic life port - ray, as
 And when life's peal we cease and come at last to rest, May Ring out! ye bells a - bove, Let all the earth, re - sound, Till mus - ic Heav'n-ward flow to blend with peals Di - vine. God's prais - es lead if un - der - stood will guide each per - fect sway. Thus more and come and hear God's Word, O come! and wor - ship here. Stay not a - com - ing round fore - tells of his re - turn - ing day. The Great Bell heav'n - ly bells of peace ac - claim us with the blest. Each part rung ev' - ry sphere in love and har - mon - y be bound. And wor - ship sound and with - out fault His name ex - alt with ev' - ry round.

 more with ear and sight and art and might His Name a - dore. way, Come! Come! we call, We wel - come all this Ho - ly Day."
 tolled with sol - emn lay calls souls a - stray back to the fold.
 true, ours now the prize in Christ, to rise and ring a - new.
 Thee O Fath - er, Son and Spi - rit, One in Tri - ni -

D.S. 6. ral.